Report on adult literacy camp organized by Compucom college

By: Sunil
Place and Date: Compucom College, 23 September, 2023

Compucom College took the initiative to address the issue of adult illiteracy in the community by hosting a week-long literacy camp. The primary objective was to empower adults with essential literacy skills, fostering a more educated and engaged community.

The camp, held on 23 September, 2023, witnessed enthusiastic participation from local residents eager to enhance their literacy levels. Comprising interactive workshops, one-on-one tutoring sessions, and engaging educational activities, the camp created a conducive learning environment.

Compucom College is committed to its role as a socially responsible institution, and the Adult Literacy Camp exemplifies our dedication to community development.

We express our gratitude to all volunteers and participants for their active involvement, making this initiative a significant step towards a more literate and empowered community.

Q. Write a report on dowry as a social evil.

Report on dowry as social evil

By: Mohit Saini

Dowry, once a well-intentioned practice, has metamorphosed into a pervasive social evil with far-reaching consequences. This report succinctly outlines its detrimental impact on society. Dowry not only places an immense financial burden on families, leading to debt and bankruptcy, but it also perpetuates gender inequality. The practice ties a woman's value to material possessions, reinforcing harmful stereotypes.

The alarming prevalence of dowry-related violence, including harassment and emotional abuse, exacerbates the issue. Moreover, the practice hinders educational and career opportunities for girls, contributing to a cycle of inequality. Despite legislative measures, community engagement and awareness campaigns are imperative to effect change.

In conclusion, dowry demands a collective approach. Combining legal reforms with educational initiatives and community-driven efforts is essential for eradicating this deeply ingrained social evil. Only through concerted action can society break free from the shackles of dowry and foster a culture that values equality, dignity, and respect for all.
